

Playground Expectations

Below are some internet sites to get you started on your development of playground games. Just use Google to search the game you want to learn and you will find a wealth of information that you can tailor to your specific needs.

Youtube is a wonderful resource providing video examples of games that allow your students to see just what you are trying to explain.

Four square - Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia
http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Four_square

PLAYGROUND AND SAFETY RULES

http://www.modoc.k12.ca.us/Schools/alturas_elementary_school/pdf_files/AES%20Classroom%20info%20booklet.pdf

How To Play Hopscotch (Playground Games)

http://www.google.com/url?sa=t&source=web&cd=12&ved=0CFcQtwlwATgK&url=http%3A%2F%2Fwww.vid.eoju.com%2Ffilm%2Fhow-to-play-hopscotch&ei=fc6BTi28Eq_UiAKJt92EDQ&usq=AFQjCNGLyH5bsRGkozhC7c2_xAVCZooycw

Playground Designs & School Recess Games | Peaceful Playgrounds

<http://www.peacefulplaygrounds.com/>

etc.....