A Dynamic Workshop with Kevin Feldman, PhD Nov. 14, 2013

For: Principals K-12, content teacher leaders, coaches, & support staff

The adoption of the CCSS clarifies the scope of our challenge to dramatically improve rigor and effectiveness in daily instruction, coupled with targeted interventions to accelerate achievement of students who are behind. In this workshop, various models, videos and narratives will be shared describing how elementary and secondary schools are dramatically improving the quality of routine classroom teaching. Dr. Feldman will guide participants in exploring validated tools for teacher feedback including classroom video, collaborative coaching teams, "Learning Walks", peer and expert coaching, and Professional Learning Community enhancement, with a goal of building a culture of competence at the school site level.

Early Registration: $50 per person (prior to Nov. 4th)
